

TV CELEBRITY'S AITUTAKI HONEYMOON

Many people will recognize Catriona Rowntree as the beautiful host of the long-time favourite Australian travel show, 'Getaway'.

Ever since Catriona traveled to Aitutaki she announced that it was her favourite destination in all the world.

After 10 years of globetrotting Catriona is still very much in love with Aitutaki ... so much so that she introduced her new husband to the destination by taking him there on their honeymoon.

Catriona and the love of her life, James Pettit, honeymooned at Aitutaki's new luxury private pool villa, Villa Te Arau ~ Royal Honeymoon Pool Villa, and in an exclusive Overwater Bungalow at the Aitutaki Lagoon Resort & Spa

The June 2008 issue of the Australian Womens Weekly (Australian edition) features the couple's special time together in Aitutaki, and you can also see the story at www.AitutakiLagoonResort.com

The couple were able to enjoy some unique experiences on Aitutaki. James indulged his passion for fishing and learnt to play the ukulele, Catriona caught up on some great reads, a bit of 'spa' me time' and sashayed on the sand, and together they rode bicycles, saw a local rugby game, heard a Sunday choir, sipped champagne on a sunset cruise and dined by candlelight on James' catch!

So now, the couple have another shared passion, Aitutaki. And the feeling is mutual, with Aitutakians looking forward to one day welcoming the couple back to their balmy island in the sun.

After 10 years of globetrotting Catriona is still very much in love with Aitutaki ...

