Wedding Planner Forms & Quotes

“When is the Best Time to get Married on Aitutakí?”

Any time is perfect for a paradise wedding beside Aitutaki Lagoon.

If you have your heart set on frangipani as your wedding flowers, make sure you come during our glorious Frangipani Season (our ‘summer’), from November through to April (and you enjoy longer ‘summer’ days as well!)

If you live in Australia or New Zealand and you want to escape winter back home, come anytime from May through to October, our fragrant Gardenia Season.

Temperatures are pleasant all year-round with a balmy 21 to 30 degrees centigrade in ‘summer’ and 17 to 25 degrees centigrade in ‘winter’. Aitutaki is slightly closer to the Equator than Rarotonga, so tends to be a couple of degrees warmer overall than her sister island. As a result, some of the most beautiful varieties of frangipani in the world grow on Aitutaki in a riot of coral pinks, hot pinks, salmon pinks, butter yellows and blush reds, and the almost-atoll is also famous for her luscious aromatic mangoes.

All brides and grooms naturally want perfect weather for their big day, and for many the word ‘rain’ is indeed a 4-letter word! Whilst no one can guarantee a rain-free wedding day, we can guarantee a care-free wedding day as we take care of every detail so you can relax, rest easy and enjoy each other’s company.

In the event of any tropical showers, these are generally passing through, and in addition, the canopies of the Oneroa Beach Chapel or the Kuriri Point Gazebo afford welcome protection from any ‘wet sunshine’, as it’s often called by the locals! If ‘wet sunshine’ does indeed come to pass on your wedding day (such as might happen around the time of the New Moon), then think as the locals do - that this is a very auspicious blessing from above on your special day!

So when planning your tropical beach wedding, think Plan A and Plan B. Plan A is when you are standing on the shore exchanging your vows under a clear South Seas sky, the lagoon a-sparkling and the sun caressing your cheeks. Plan B is when you have wisely selected a beach location which has a fall-back position in the event that any ‘wet sunshine’ makes it tricky to proceed with Plan A – especially if you are part-way through your ceremony!

Very few Plan B locations exist on Aitutaki or Rarotonga. Aitutaki Lagoon Resort & Spa however is blessed with the only dedicated Plan B locations on Aitutaki, the fabulous Oneroa Beach Chapel and the charming Kuriri Point Gazebo – both of which are perfect for your intimate ceremony whether in brilliant sunshine or in ‘wet sunshine’! (We also offer a selection of beautiful Plan B venues at sister resort, The Rarotongan Beach Resort & Spa, including the Aro’a Beach Gazebo, the Tropical Garden Gazebo and the Blue Lagoon Marquee – ask the bride who hastily changed her wedding location from Muri Beach to Aro’a Beach recently when she realized that Plan B would be a very wise thing to have!).

Having a Plan B fallback location means you can proceed with your Plan A dream tropical beach wedding with confidence, knowing that, whatever happens, you’re ... uhhmm ... covered!

“Where Can We Marry?” aka Your Pick of Aitutakí Wedding Locations

The Aitutaki Lagoon Resort & Spa is located directly on the World’s Most Beautiful Lagoon, Aitutaki, on its own private island of Motu Akitua. Here you can say “I do” on the shimmering champagne sands, with a unique, exclusive and extensive selection of breathtaking, secluded sites to choose from for your dream South Seas island wedding.

Oneroa Beach Wedding Chapel

Aitutaki Lagoon Resort & Spa is delighted to now offer Aitutaki's first dedicated wedding venue, the absolutely stunning Oneroa Beach Chapel.

Imagine saying "I do" with the World's Most Beautiful Lagoon as your backdrop, you and your family and friends under the cool shade of the Chapel's thatched canopy, the glorious lagoon glistening before you, and beneath you, a carpet of fine champagne sands. Bliss!

Named in honour of Tekura-I-Oneroa, one of the 24 beautiful royal maidens brought to Aitutaki by legendary warrior and navigator Chief Ru on his voyage of discovery in the 12th century, the Oneroa Beach Chapel is the perfect venue for the bride and groom alone in paradise, yet is just as ideal for a couple celebrating their big day with those they love, accommodating up to 50 guests.

Located on the secluded western end of Sunset Beach towards Kuriri Point, the Oneroa Beach Chapel and Wedding Pavilion is the ultimate wedding location which effortlessly transforms from being the perfect Wedding Ceremony location to being the ideal location for your memorable Wedding Dinner.

Kuriri Point & Kuriri Point Gazebo

Named after the Wandering Tattler, a pretty shore bird whose musical cry sounds exactly like its name, ku-ri-ri, Kuriri Point has 'grandstand seats' on Motu Akitua's glorious tropical sunsets and panoramic views of the World's Most Beautiful Lagoon, Aitutaki Lagoon. On a typical gloriously clear day, the majestic lagoon views from here are guaranteed to take your breath away. Kuriri Point is ideal for couples in love to say "I do" in paradise, either under the canopy of the blue Aitutaki skies or under the cool shade of "The Wedding Umbrella" ~ the intimate, umbrella-style thatched Kuriri Point Gazebo, another favourite wedding location.

Sunset Beach

The sweeping swathe of champagne sands along Sunset Beach, traced on one side by a long line of elegant, softly-swaying coconut palms and on the other, by the gentle lapping of Aitutaki Lagoon, provides one of the world's most beautiful beaches on which to seal your wedding vows. After all, what can top saying "I do" on a stunning private beach, on your own private island, right on the world's most beautiful lagoon? Ideal for couples in love searching for a dream location for your romantic South Seas wedding, on Aitutaki's most beautiful private beach. Absolute Aitutaki awaits.

Palm Tree Aisle

Take a few steps back from Sunset Beach and you find yourself standing in Palm Tree Aisle, a beautiful sandy aisle flanked by two lines of tall, graceful coconut palms. This makes a naturally cool canopy for your paradise wedding ceremony, or alternatively, a fabulous backdrop for stunning wedding shots after your ceremony. (The gorgeous photograph in the Australian Women's Weekly of Australia's popular TV celebrity and "Getaway" TV show host, Catriona Rowntree, taking a carefree bicycle ride with hunky husband James Pettit while on their dream Aitutaki honeymoon was shot against Palm Tree Aisle with views of Aitutaki Lagoon beyond.) Another truly unique location.

"What Time Can We Get Married?"

Each part of a perfect day in Paradise has its own special charm.

Late afternoon is a wonderful time of day to exchange vows as you bask together in the golden glow of the Aitutaki sun, and later your Wedding Photographer can capture you standing together against a riot of oranges, pinks, yellows and reds as the sun melts into the horizon.

If you prefer shots of glorious blue skies at the height of their brilliance, you should consider opting for earlier in the afternoon as your preferred ceremony time, such as 1pm.

Or you may prefer a slightly cooler part of the day – and you may be yearning to become Mr & Mrs as soon as possible on your wedding day! – in which case mid-morning at 10.30am may be your preferred option.
